ABSTRACT

This union list identifies 455 microform collections held by 8 public and academic libraries in New Orleans. It is noted that newspapers, periodicals, Government Printing Office (GPO) depository microfiche, and individual monograph titles were excluded from the list unless they are a part of a publisher's series, archival project, or manuscript collection. The list is in alphabetical order by main entry with many cross references from alternate titles provided. Each entry includes the name and institutional or personal author(s) of the material on microform; the dates and types of information covered by the series; the name of the micropublisher or original source of the series; a designation of the type of microform; the number of reels where applicable; symbols designating the libraries that hold the microform series; and a notation of partial holdings or collections on standing order. A list of libraries included is also provided. (Author/ESR)

INTRODUCTION

During the last two decades, microforms have become a major resource in many academic and public libraries. They often account for a large portion of a library's volume-holdings and usually represent a significant share of a library's budget. Because of this, it is important that library patrons make full use of these materials.

The primary intention in compiling this union list is to expand the use of those microform collections which are currently underutilized. Acquisition staff will find this list helpful in avoiding unnecessary duplication of expensive microform sets. Researchers, as well as interlibrary loans librarians, should find this to be a valuable guide in determining "who has what" in the New Orleans area.

No attempt has been made to include every physical unit of microform held by the various participating libraries. Newspapers, periodicals, Government Printing Office depository microfiche, and individual monograph titles have been excluded unless they are a part of a publisher's series, archival project, or manuscript collection. For example, there will be no listing for Shakespeare's Twelfth Night but there will be a listing for the collection Three Centuries of English and American Plays, 1500-1830 which includes several editions of this particular play. Similarly, even though the periodical Southern Quarterly Review will not be listed, the Xerox University Microfilms project, American Periodicals: Series, II, 1800-1850, which includes this title is listed.

Also covered in this union list are the numerous collections of National Archives microform publications available in this area.

Special thanks go to the following staff from the participating libraries for their cooperation in supplying data for this project:

Collin B. Hamer, Jr.	New Orleans Public Library
Irvin Murrell	New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary
Carole Taylor	Dillary University Library
Mark W. Flynn	Loyola University Library
Barbara Matthews	St. Mary's Dominican College Library
Tony Solar	Tulane University Library
Sr. M. Madeleine	Xavier University Library
John Curry	Southern University at New Orleans Library

EXPLANATION OF ENTRIES

Each item included in the union list is in alphabetical order by main entry, determined from Library of Congress sources, publishers' catalogs, or the Guide to Microforms in Print. For collections filmed locally the entry conforms to the cataloging of the participating library.

Bibliographical citations or the name of the microform series follow each entry number. The name of the micropublisher or original source of the film is then included in parentheses. A designation of the type of microform follows: microcard, microfiche, microprint, ultrafiche or microfilm (16mm or 35mm). For those titles on roll type film, the number of reels in the collection is given if supplied by the participating library.

Finally symbols are given for the participating libraries which own that particular collection. These conform to the National Union Catalog--Register of Additional Locations; Cumulative Microform Edition, 1968-1980 (Washington, D.C., Library of Congress, 1981). Partial holdings are listed when supplied by the participating library as well as the designation "s.o." for collections on standing order.

There has also been an attempt to list any necessary cross references since many microform collections are known by alternate titles. These cross references are not preceded by an entry number but do lead you to the entry as found in this union list. For example the collection Early English Books: Series II, 1641-1700 has cross references from the headings "Short-Title Catalog" as well as "Wing, Donald."
